

TENANT PROTECTION RESOURCES

Navigating the changes to tenant protections and understanding which ones apply to Los Angeles County renters can be overwhelming. The Los Angeles County Department of Consumer and Business Affairs (DCBA) has put together a guide to help renters understand which protections have expired and which ones will continue beyond April 1, 2023. Click here to view the guide.

DCBA understands that every renter's situation is complex and there may be additional questions. Counselors are available to help navigate the recent changes to tenant protections. Schedule an appointment to speak with a counselor by clicking here or by calling 800-593-8222.
